

7. CIGARETTE BRANDS / TOBACCO COMPANIES / SMOKING

Guidelines

- a. Advertisements that promote smoking, cigarette and tobacco brands are prohibited by the law.
- b. Advertisements for non-tobacco products that are associated with tobacco brand names are not acceptable, unless approval is obtained from the Health Sciences Authority (HSA) e.g. Alfred Dunhill belts.
- c. Advertisements must not contain the brand names or logos of any of the tobacco companies, even if they only form part of the sponsorship for an event. Approval must be obtained from HSA before such logos or brand names may be advertised.
