

ANNEX C

The following new local labels will be premiering at Raffles Privato:

skinsNbones	Nicole Wong is the first runner-up at the Triumph Inspiration Award 2009 and the designer launched her first collection at Millenia Walk on 31 March 2009. Her mixture of menswear and womenswear collections plays around with everyday items and transforms them into something wearable yet totally new and different.
10 BY 7	Vicky Chu is the winner of the Advanced Diploma in Fashion Design Best Collection Awards 2008. Her collection was also featured by The Straits Times Urban in July 2008 as an outstanding young fashion designer at a tender age of 17. She specialises in menswear and her collections show the softer side of men's wear, focusing on drape with strong tailoring details.
XQ's	Zhang Xiaoqing designed the national costume for Miss Singapore Universe 2009 and she is also a winner of the Advanced Diploma in Fashion Design Best Collection Award in the same year. XQ's is a women's wear label that targets the middle to high-end market, offering quality modern apparel in an assortment of sizes and styles to accommodate different body shapes.
IX	Ixchel Aw is a Malaysian fashion designer who graduated from Raffles Design Institute in December 2009. Her collection embodies spontaneous glamour and femininity in a range of contemporary women's apparel.
GRYTALAUW	Gryta Lauw is an Indonesian fashion designer who graduated from Raffles Design Institute in December 2009. She focuses on menswear and her collection is wearable, edgy, stylish and unique.
The Prodigal Son	Erin Lo has a passion for colours, prints and embellishments on simple cut design, which is translated into her collection for everyday women.
K-XI	Wang Kher Sze draws inspiration from street chic culture, social issues and her distinct personal style. Her collection features casual yet sophisticated pieces that are easy to mix and match and they are also comfortable – appealing to the young and urban style-conscious set.